

“Breakfast”

You wake me up in the morning
I worry I'm snoring but you say I'm not
It's way too early
To leave these covers and go outside

You tell me to stay in bed,
But I promise I don't mind

I will make you breakfast
Anytime you want it
Anyway you want it
I will make you breakfast
Anytime you want it
Anyway you want it

It's really so comfortable
Lying together through the afternoon
We can close the curtains
And pretend that its nighttime the whole day through

You tell me to stay in bed
But I promise I don't mind

I will make you breakfast
Anytime you want it
Anyway you want it
I will make you breakfast
Anytime you want it
Anyway you want it

I know it's busy out there
We both have so many things to be
But I would stay wrapped up with you
Forever if you'd only agree

That I could make you breakfast
Everytime you want it
Everyway you want it
If I could make you breakfast
Everytime you want it
Everyway you want it

You wake me up in the morning
I worry I'm snoring but you say I'm not
