

“Can’t Be Over”

I am not evil
Or so you say
You’ve turned into everything you hate about me

You never admit
If you want me at all
Only a hint would let me know which way to fall

I can’t be here myself
You know I’m not that strong

Sometimes I feel like I’m in love but not with you
It’s so clear after all we’ve been through
That I cannot leave you for something new
Can’t be over

My tears don’t affect you anymore
How did I ever make you happy before

I won’t stay here by myself
You know I’m not that strong

Sometimes I feel like I’m in love but not with you
It’s so clear after all we’ve through
That I cannot leave you for something new
Cant be over

I’m trying to remember why I’m still here
How did we end up like this after so many years
When all you do is hold me back
Exposing my fears

Sometimes I feel like I’m in love but not with you
It’s so clear after all we’ve through
That I cannot leave you for something new
Can’t be over
