

“I Still Love You”

I'm lost without you here
I'm feeling unsure of myself every time you're not around
And maybe things aren't clear by the way we left them but I still love you, I love you, I always will love you

This will pass
I won't be angry at you anymore
We'll forget that you said what you did
And I evened out the score
Even if you meant it
And I know that you still do

I still love you
I still love you
Love you

It doesn't matter much now
We live so far apart
But one day we'll miss each other enough to have a change of heart
Maybe now isn't the best time to talk
But eventually we'll work it out
And you will know that

I still love you
I still love you
Love you

This doesn't mean I take anything back
You deserved it and I'm sticking to that
But worse times we've been through

I still love you
I still love you
Love you

I still love you
I still love you
Love you
